

2015 Benefit Costs for Deputy Sheriffs

King County

Benefits, Payroll and Retirement Operations

As a deputy sheriff, you receive county-paid medical, dental and vision coverage for you and your eligible dependents, basic life insurance for you and your eligible dependents, and basic accidental death and dismemberment (AD&D) insurance for you. You may purchase supplemental life insurance for yourself in an amount equal to your base annual salary, less $6,000. The 2015 rate for this coverage is shown below.

Supplemental life insurance

The 2015 monthly rate for supplemental life insurance is $0.276/$1,000, which was the same in 2014.

Example

If your base annual salary is $50,000, you're eligible to purchase $44,000 ($50,000 - $6,000) of supplemental life insurance. The cost is $$0.276 \times 44 = \12.14 per month.

Base Annual Salary	$50,000
Basic Life Insurance subtracted	-$6,000
Supplemental Benefit	$44,000
Monthly Cost	$12.14 ($$0.276 \times 44 = \12.14 per month)
